Col. White:

Noted that the Bureau of the Budget had requested our comments on a bill which would allow governmental agencies to employ officers who are retired for length of service. Col. White reported that if this bill is approved, it would, of course, do away with the provisions of PL 53. The Director noted his concurrence in this proposed bill.

Stated that the FBI had requested the CIA to keep track of [redacted] during his forthcoming trip to Europe. He said the Bureau had indicated it could do so in [redacted] where they have legal attaches;; however, this individual was visiting seven other countries in which the FBI had no facilities to conduct surveillance. It was pointed out that in order for CIA to perform this activity, it would be necessary to bring in our opposite numbers in the countries concerned and therefore, consideration should be given to their reaction should we agree to undertake this mission. The Director said he would first like to discuss this matter with [redacted] and asked [redacted] to remind him to do so.
